

LEASHING AND MUZZLING YOUR DOG

Pet owners are required by law to leash your dog in public places. The maximum fine for not leashing your dog is $5,000. Leashing the dog is part of being a responsible pet owner. You can better control the dog and avoid it from getting lost or from disturbing others unintentionally.

Dog breeds specified in the 1st Second Schedule of the Animals and Birds (Dog Licensing and Control) Rules must be muzzled in public. The maximum fine for not doing so is $5,000 for the first offence, and a fine not exceeding $10,000 for the second or subsequent conviction.
